

Autonomy Allocation Matrix v1

Defines five levels of autonomy from human-executed to AI-executed and AI-monitored.

Autonomy is allocated per decision, not per system.

Higher autonomy requires stronger evidence, not more confidence.

Autonomy must be allowed to regress as easily as it advances.

Human accountability never transfers to machines.