Decision Inventory v1

Purpose: To make organizational decision logic explicit before allocating AI autonomy.

All AI-involved decisions must be inventoried, classified, and owned by a named human.

Decisions are classified across frequency, economic impact, reversibility, external consequence severity, and latency tolerance.

If a decision is not explicitly inventoried, it is not eligible for AI autonomy.

Ownership does not imply continuous oversight. Ownership implies accountability for outcomes.