Governance as Infrastructure v1

Governance must be machine-compatible or it will be bypassed.

Governance functions include intent encoding, observability, intervention, and learning.

Governance replaces committee-based oversight with operational controls.

Governance scales with autonomy, not against it.

Well-designed governance increases speed while preserving control.